WEDDING.

Rouelle-Lynn.

The many friends of Mr. H. Rouelle and Miss Florence Lillian Lynn will be interested to learn that on the night of Thursday, December 31st, 1908, just as the old year was losing its grasp, they were united in marriage by the Rev. A. W. Johnson in Newport.

The bride wore a gown of blue silk.
As the bride walked to the altar she carried with her a huge bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Many splendid and valuable gifts were showered upon the happy couple by their well wishing friends, among others being a very handsome sideboard and a new set of dishes.

The wedding supper was served in the dining room of the Officers' club.
Immediately following the supper a dance was held in their honor, and their friends wished them the best of luck and prosperity in the new life into which they are just starting.

Mr. Rouelle is employed as a first-class cook in the Naval Training station at Newport, and is extremely popular among his comrades, from whom the couple received some handsome gifts.

On Friday evening at nine o'clock in the study of Rev. J. W. Lester, West, D.D., Jonas Canfield of Sudus, N. Y., and Miss Anna Murray of this city, daughter of J. W. Lester, who is 18 Arnold street, were united in marriage by Dr. West, relatives of the bride witnessing the ceremony.
